ALL ARE WELCOME!
(Open and Affirming, Reconciling Statement) :

We, the Williston Federated Church, declare ourselves to be an Open and Affirming, Reconciling congregation. With God's grace, we seek to be a congregation that includes all persons, embracing differences of sexual orientation, gender, marital status, age, mental and physical ability, as well as racial, ethnic, or social-economic background. We welcome all to share in the life and leadership, ministry, and fellowship, worship, sacraments, responsibilities and blessings of participation in our congregation. (Adopted and embraced by the WFC congregation in February, 2006.)

Message from Pastor Paul

GOD IS AT WORK
AMONG US
A Note from Pastor
Paul Eyer

It was an anxiety-generating moment. A creative stewardship campaign had reached its culmination. Neighbors, ministry leaders, community members (and even Bill Skiff in period costume) had all offered meaningful testimony about the positive important impact of our church.

But on Consecration Sunday this past May, the intended culminating event of the stewardship campaign, we were still well short of our goal for pledges for 2019-2020. With furrowed brows, Finance Committee members contemplated next steps. Informed by prayer and thoughtful reflection, the Committee decided to continue the campaign through June. (The new fiscal year—FY 2019-2020—was to begin July 1.)

And so it was that we invited Jenny Rousseau to share her moving testimony about how the church community helped sustain her during her remarkable journey over the past few years. And the following week Bob Driver spoke with conviction about the strength of his faith and the power of this community as he continues to combat cancer. And with an abundance of creativity, Donna Sue Hain summed it all up with engaging presentations reminding us that powerful community happens here—at Williston Federated Church—in part because we offer our financial support for the work that God is doing among us.

And this remarkable community responded powerfully to that call.

For the current fiscal year (FY 2019-2020), some 73 pledging units (individuals, or families giving as a unit) have committed over $140,000 in support of God's work at Williston Federated Church. This is the highest pledge amount in over five years.

Take a look at the trend line:

See Next Page

FY 2014-2015
 $131,193
 FY 2015-2016
 $112,099
 FY2016-2017
 $122,781
 FY2017-2018
 $116,361
 FY 2018-2019
 $117,880
FY2019-2020
$140,792

These figures come from Financial Secretary Barb Bristol and Treasurer Donna Goodheart

The figures for FY2014-2015 through FY2018-2019 reflect actual giving amounts. Of course, the figure for FY2019-2020, the current fiscal year, represents the pledge total (as actual giving totals will not be available until the end of the fiscal year).

To put these numbers in context, FY 2014-2015 was the last fiscal year of our previous installed pastor, Rev. Joan O’Gorman. The subsequent decline in giving (and in pledging units) is consistent with the pattern of a pastoral transition, as churches often experience a decline in giving and attendance during an interim period.

But with that challenging time of transition behind us, a new day has dawned.

There is ample cause for celebration here! Not only has our generosity surpassed last year’s level of giving (by a wide margin!), we have also significantly surpassed the level of giving in place prior to the tumultuous pastoral transition. And this inspiring giving total came from a smaller number of pledging units than in FY 2014-2015. Just imagine what can happen as we continue to welcome new people into our faith community!

These remarkable results are certainly a tribute to the fine work of our Finance Committee last fiscal year (Chair Bruce Wyatt, Amy Vaughan, Mike Moran, Barb Bristol, Donna Goodheart, and Donna Sue Hain). And they are an answer to prayer. God is at work among us.

Now to be sure, even this extraordinary increase in giving does not entirely do away with the structural deficit with which WFC has wrestled in recent years. But the inspiring results of this year’s stewardship campaign put us within striking distance of eliminating that deficit. God is at work.

Indeed, we have caught sightings of the Spirit throughout this summer. An exciting week of Faith, Fun, and Fellowship (Vacation Bible School 2.0) offered learning and fellowship opportunities that brought in new folks to share in our time together. (Thank you, Heather Lewis and all involved in that event.) The church’s Vitality Team helped to spearhead outreach to the community like the float for the Fourth of July parade. Another team helped serve ice cream during and following the parade. And in late July and August, our Vitality Team and others served s’mores to concertgoers listening to the Town Band concert on the Village Green.

Like the fire that roasted marshmallows for those s’mores, a spirit of vitality is burning brightly at Williston Federated Church. In some places that vitality is evident in glistening embers ready to spark. In other places that vitality has already taken flame. The Spirit moving in our midst; may it glow for all to see.

Prayerfully,
 Rev. Paul Eyer,
 Pastor

CHURCH SAFETY

Two back-to-back, identical presentations about the prospective grant to fund security upgrades such as improved locks, doors, and window wraps will take place on Tuesday, September 24 and Wednesday, September 25. Each session will get underway at 7:00 p.m. and will take place in the sanctuary.

The Security Task Force will present details about the grant proposal. Please bring your questions!

Back on August 22, we held the first congregation-wide conversation on security that featured representatives from other congregations who have wrestled with the issue of security in recent years. Bob Purvee, a retired local pastor who is now a member of First Methodist Church in Burlington, spoke about that congregation's experience adopting and implementing new steps to enhance security.

Bill Elwell, Pastor of Bristol Federated

Church in Bristol, talked about steps that his congregation has taken to keep the church safe. An audio-recording of this August 22 congregational conversation is posted on the Williston Federated Church website: steeple.org.

A subsequent, soon-to-be scheduled congregation-wide conversation will utilize the "circle process" to ensure that everyone's voice is heard on this topic. Only after all these steps are taken will any congregational action be taken regarding the grant. And because the grant would be awarded on a reimbursement model, no grant money will be received until we do the work. And no work will be done until the congregation approves moving forward with the grant. Please join us for this important conversation on September 24 or 25.

Please join us for this important conversation on September 24 or 25.

WFC Request for Ushers

Dear WFC Members and Friends,

The Music and Worship Committee would like to invite you to consider volunteering as an usher during this coming year 2019-2020. Ushers provide a vital part of the Sunday service. It also provides volunteers an opportunity to see what is involved in providing a meaningful service. It is also nice to be able to greet members and visitors. Being an usher does not involve much work, and guidance will be provided.

You can choose to usher once or twice a year or more often as you feel comfortable. Also ushers do not have to participate in providing communion on Communion Sunday unless they desire. The Minister enlists volunteers for that function.

During the first few services in September, you will be asked to complete a brief survey. Would you kindly, and with prayer, fill it out and return it in the offering plate.

This will assist the Music and Worship Committee in planning and also in avoiding multiple phone calls to enlist usher support for any given Sunday. If several folks are willing to volunteer it would be greatly appreciated. And we love to have families participate too! Thank you! The Music and Worship Committee

INTERFAITH PRIDE WORSHIP SERVICE

This Thursday, September 5 at 7:00 p.m., an interfaith pride worship service will take place. The location will be the University of Vermont (UVM) Interfaith Center at 400 South Prospect Street in Burlington, on UVM's Redstone Campus, next to the blue water tower.

Gather with Vermont's LGBTQIA and ally communities to remember, worship and celebrate. For more information visit <https://go.uvm.edu/interfaithpride> for email interfaith@uvm.edu.

PRIDE PARADE SEPTEMBER 8, 2019

On Sunday, September 8, join us after worship to participate in the Pride Parade in downtown Burlington. It will make sense to carpool from the church (as parking downtown will be limited). The parade steps off at 12:30 p.m., and we will need to be in place well before then.

So plan to meet in downstairs entry way of the church following worship to coordinate cars traveling to the parade staging area. Or meet us directly in the staging area in the old Hood Plant parking lot between South Winooski Street and Church Street on King Street.

This marks the second year in a row that Williston Federated Church will be represented in the Burlington Pride Parade. Come join us!

Life Scout Completes Eagle Project

Jake Potter, currently a Life Scout in Troop 690 in Hinesburg, completed his Eagle Scout Project on June 1, 2019. A crew of scouts and parents helped build two raised garden beds to benefit the Williston Federated Church in Williston, where Jake has been attending church since he was born.

A huge thank you goes out to Scoutmaster Norman Smith, Assistant Scoutmasters Ed Matthews and Seth Zimmerman, Eagle Scout Sam Zimmerman, Boy Scouts Cody Potter, Ronald Spivack, and Jackson Tellstone, and parent volunteers Dana and Fran Potter and Barb Powers for taking the time to assist on the project and for seeing it through to completion.

Pastor Paul Eyer and Tony Lamb from the Williston Federated church were instrumental in getting this project started.

To start, the existing garden was weeded and old fencing was removed. The garden was then leveled and two 4' x 8' cedar raised garden beds were constructed and filled with fresh topsoil, which was delivered from Paquette's in Williston. Fifty feet of fencing was also installed around the perimeter of the garden.

In order to become an Eagle Scout, several qualifications set forth by the Boy Scouts of America must be met. For example, the scout must be active with their troop for at least six months after becoming a Life Scout, have references that prove they live by the Scout oath and laws in their daily lives, earn at least 21 merit badges, serve in a leadership position in the troop, and develop and create a service project. Jake joined Cub Scouts back in 2010 and has since climbed the ranks to Life Scout. He has earned 30 merit badges, is serving as the Senior Patrol Leader in his troop, and is starting his sophomore year at CVU

We are grateful for what Jake has done for the church and we are immensely pleased that he chose the church to be the focus of his Eagle Scout project. Congratulations to Jake on this extraordinary accomplishment!!

JUMP greatly values and needs your continued involvement, and that is why we are reaching out to you, to help make a difference in the lives of vulnerable Vermonters.

WHY? JUMP is doing important work:

Did you know that transportation challenges have an effect on many working poor neighbors? Transit assistance is a critical part of the solution, and that’s where you can help.

JUMP is the only not for profit providing gasoline assistance, spending annually over $30,000 transportation support. JUMP also provides bus passes and vouchers for bicycles.

This year the run has set a goal of raising $15,000 to support the work of JUMP

Run (or walk) for JUMP is a fun event for students, adults, children, grandchildren and the entire family as it includes an open 5K run, a 1K run for kids under 14, and a 1K walk – all on Burlington’s beautiful Waterfront. Help those in need while also having fun! FREE PARKING

Local businesses, including many restaurants, donate prizes for the top finishers, top team, age group raisers. Every participant will have an opportunity to win terrific raffle prizes.

The Joint Urban Ministry Project (JUMP) operates an emergency Drop-in Center in donated space at First Congregational Church of Burlington providing compassionate care, practical assistance and informed referrals to thousands of Vermont adults and children annually. Thanks to the generosity of more than 28 area faith communities, many individuals, businesses and foundations, JUMP is a reliable source of assistance year-round.

Last year, JUMP assisted more than 2,100 adults and children as volunteers and staff distributed 5595 vouchers valued at $101,430. JUMP provided vouchers for much needed assistance with transportation, utility bills, groceries (including perishables not often available from food pantries), laundromat usage, prescription co-pays and helping those who need updated ID’s acquire them. A top requested voucher was for transportation gas assistance as JUMP spent $24,725 plus an additional Bus Passes $5714 and Bikes $1257. Combined JUMP spent a needed $31,686 for transportation assistance; equaling 31% of all vouchers requested.

TEAM BROWNSVILLE

Myself and many people I have talked with have a deep concern about happenings at the Mexican border. At the same time we felt helpless not knowing how best to offer assistance. A friend of mine from the Thursday Prayer Group spends winters in Brownsville Texas. Brownsville is on the Mexican border – over a bridge is Matamoros Mexico. My friend, Mary, told me about a group in Brownsville, called Team Brownsville, that has become a non-profit as it continues to organize to help asylum seekers.

The Thursday morning group encounters faith journey, moments of learning and moments of spiritual connections. .

As of July 21, about 25 volunteers were servicing 100 people with water. breakfast and dinner, clothing, bedding, medicine and a variety of other supplies.

The asylum seekers are at a bus station and a migrant campsite The greatest need is water which Team Brownsville needs to purchase and pay for transport. (It is very hot and dry at the border) A great deal of food has been donated. They have a Facebook page and a web site:

TEAM BROWNSVILLE

Humanitarian Assistance for Asylum Seekers

Together we work to help asylum seekers who find themselves in Brownsville, Texas and at the Brownsville/Matamoros international bridges.

Team Brownsville was founded in July 2018, by a small group of like minded educator volunteers. Since that time, our membership and our mission has expanded with the help of volunteers and donors from around the globe.

Centering Prayer, Silent Prayer and Bible Reflection

The method, called Centering Prayer, will be practiced by some in the group, others will practice whatever form of silent prayer or meditation they choose.

Book Club News

The next book group meeting will be Monday Sept. 23 at 5:30 PM at the church. All women of the church are invited to this fun pot luck and discussion. Educated is an account of the struggle for self-invention. It is a tale of fierce family loyalty and of the grief that comes with severing the closest of ties. With the acute insight that distinguishes all great writers, Westover has crafted a universal coming-of-age story that gets to the heart of what an education is and what it offers: the perspective to see one's life through new eyes and the will to change it.

FOR KIDS ONLY

Sunday school begins September 8.

We will have a "Blessing of the Backpacks" during the children's time, so bring your backpack and join us for a fun and meaningful time in Sunday School this year!

SOUP AND STUDY FOR THE FALL : Get to know the Gospels

Our fall Soup and Study will focus on the four Gospels. Dates: Thursdays, October 3, 10, 17 and 24. Time 5:30 to 7:00 PM.

Free soup and bread followed by a study of each Gospel, led by Pastor Paul. In the spring, we will have another study session of the rest of the New Testament.

Please Join Us and invite a friend!

Faith + Fellowship ♥ Fun

Faith Fellowship Fun was Fantastic! Each night, 35-40 people (13 kids one night) visited Hero Central where we learned that God's Heroes have Heart, Courage, Wisdom, Hope & Power.

The church was alive with music, laughter and conversation.

Crafts were made, experiments were tested and games were played.

We celebrated heroes in the Bible like David, Abigail and Jesus.

We celebrated heroes in our community like workers at the Town Hall and the Fire Department.

We celebrated heroes in our world like Color Our World, Habitat for Humanity, Heifer International, Kids4Peace, and Project Chacocente. During Faith Fellowship Fun we learned that we are all God's Heroes and we will do good, seek peace and go after it! Thank you Heather Lewis and team!!!

4th of July Parade

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

CHURCH SAVES LUNCH

In 1997 the barbeque Grills came up missing!

“Perhaps someone re-cycled them by mistake” said Rev. Henry Frueh.

The July 4th annual Chicken barbeque was the church’s biggest fund raiser—serving at least 500 lunches. Church parishioners Carolyn Pillsbury and Ginger Isham came to the rescue. “We decided we would do an alternative menu,” Pillsbury said. She and Ginger and other volunteers would serve ham, baked beans, carrots, watermelon and rolls from Chef’s Bakery to famished parade goers.

“The traditional barbeque was a chance for residents to gle and connect, so the lunch had to go on. The town of Williston is changing so fast it is important we keep the spirit alive and go on doing things.” Pillsbury said.

“The year before the church raised $1,800 and though this year we will be in untested waters, there is a lot of joy in putting this on,” said Rev. Frueh. “Next year we hope to have new grills so we can go back to the traditional Fourth of July chicken barbeque.” he said.

Bishop-Elect MacVean-Brown's ordination "and consecration-- Sept. 28

In May, the Episcopal Church in Vermont elected the Rev. Dr. Shannon MacVean-Brown, interim rector at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Franklin, Ind., as its 11th bishop diocesan.

Soon after, the Episcopal Diocese of Vermont was notified by Presiding Bishop and Primate Michael B. Curry and Registrar of General Convention, the Rev. Canon Michael Barlowe, that Bishop-elect Shannon MacVean-Brown had received the required majority of consents. Exciting, MacVean-Brown will be ordained and consecrated on Sept. 28 at Ira Allen Chapel in Burlington. The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church, will serve as the chief consecrator.

MacVean-Brown will succeed the Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Ely, who has served as bishop since 2001. The Episcopal Church in Vermont encompasses 45 congregations across the Green Mountain State. The historic election marks the first time an African American has been elected as bishop of the Episcopal Church in Vermont. Additionally, MacVean-Brown will be one of only three African American women to hold the title of bishop in any of the seven dioceses that make up the Episcopal Church in New England, also known as Province I of The Episcopal Church.

MacVean-Brown holds a Master of Divinity degree from Seabury-Western Theological Seminary and a Doctor of Ministry degree from Ecumenical Theological Seminary. She was ordained deacon in 2004 and priest in 2005 in the Diocese of Michigan. MacVean-Brown and her husband, Phil, have been married for 26 years. Together they have three daughters. MacVean-Brown resides in Indiana but will be relocating to Vermont.

Wanda Hines; JUMP Director is especially excited as the honor of her presence was requested to attend the much anticipated historic event.

God willing and the people consenting,

The Reverend Doctor Shannon MacVean-Brown

will be ordained and consecrated a Bishop

Silence With God

Solitude and silence are not, in the end, about success or failure. They are about showing up and letting God do the rest. They are not an end in themselves; they are merely a means through which we regularly make ourselves available to God for the intimacy of relationship and for the work of transformation that only God can accomplish.

ALL ARE WELCOME HERE
